The Jurisprudence Institute is a nonprofit, nonpartisan, 501(c)(3) organization whose primary mission is to research public policy and advocate favorable policy for the benefit of athletes, entertainers, and social justice seekers.

Our Motto:

Protecting freedoms to compete, perform and enjoy the benefit of unalienable rights, through our research and public policy advocacy.

Our Mission Statement:

Founded in 2018, The Jurisprudence Institute for Sports, Entertainment and Social Justice stated mission is to defend the principles, integrity, and fairness of those individuals who are members of the sports, entertainment and social justice community, and to improve relations through our services between the institutions and organizations to which the members of those professions, and citizens of American society are a part of.
